About This Game

The Steadfast VR Challenge is a hybrid of First Person Shooter and Tower Defense that forces you to incorporate strategy with marksmanship in a virtual world!

It's delivered in an infinite wave based format where you'll find yourself frequently combining fast, deliberate decisions with quick reflexes to pull off the unthinkable. All while utilizing the time between waves to carefully place your chess-like pieces, arm your traps and catch your breath before the next onslaught begins. Your objective is to complete as many rounds as possible before your virtual world literally explodes in your face.

Do you have the skill, smarts and poise under pressure?

Are you up for the challenge...

This game has soooooo much potential. The graphics are horrible. No way to upscale the graphics and everything looks fuzzy. No matter what hardware you have. If the devs cleaned up the graphics, this game would be a winner! Great concept. But too fuzzy to play without getting annoyed. Also, your pistols randomly disappear, so you lose the game. Too bad, they almost had a winner here.. AMAZING Shooter/Tower Defense Hybrid!!!

I've been playing this game on Oculus for months now, very happy to see it's now on Steam! If you are a fan of Shooters & Tower Defense games, this is an amazing hybrid of the two!!! Not only is it the best hybrid of the two gametypes but individually i believe it's the best (first person) shooter and tower defense game offered today. The fact that it's both combined into one is incredible. This has and will continue to provide hours and hours and hours of fun. Honestly the best money i've spent on the Rift store so far & i'm sure i'll say the same now about Steam!!! Highly Recommended!!!. Sorry boys, if it's finicky during the tutorial (wouldn't let me grab the first canister) I'm not gonna waste my time. Good fun. Could do with a little more content. I would like to see more Automated traps.

Overall its a good purchase when on sale!
